

Binding Structure of Propositions for State Doctoral Examination in Postgraduate Study Programmes:

Economics and Management, Business Administration and Management, System Engineering and Informatics

Faculty of Economics Technical University of Liberec

Binding structure of propositions for the state doctoral examination:

1. Preface
2. Summary and evaluation of scientific findings in the topic area
3. Definition of the objectives based on the analysis of current situation
4. Overview of own achievements in the topic area
5. Outline of subsequent course of the final thesis
6. Conclusion
7. References
8. List of own publications related to the final thesis topic
9. Chronological Curriculum Vitae (no personal data)

The front page shall state the faculty logo, the name and type of the final thesis, study programme, subject-area including specialization, name and surname of the author (degrees included), name and surname of supervisor (degrees included), date and venue of processing. Recommended range of propositions is of 50 standard pages at the maximum.

Along with the number of 5 printed copies of propositions, the author shall submit a supervisor's statement whether a student is or is not recommended to sit for the State Doctoral Examination.

Note: Along with the number of 5 printed copies of propositions, a student of System engineering and Informatics study programme shall submit as well:

1. a supervisor's statement of recommendation
2. a supervisor's reference
3. thesis reader's report (a reader is not a member of a student's university)

prof. Ing. Jiří Kraft, CSc.
Chair of Subject-Area Board
Postgraduate Study Programme of Economics and Management

prof. Ing. Miroslav Žížka, Ph.D.
Chair of Subject-Area Board
Postgraduate Study Programme of Business Administration and Management

doc. Ing. Klára Antlová, Ph.D.
Chair of Faculty Subject-Area Board
Postgraduate Study Programme of System Engineering and Informatics

