Article 1 Organization of the Study Programme

- (1) In order to be graded by both diploma from the Technical University of Liberec (TUL) and from the Dresden University of Technology (TUD), students are obliged to gain at least 30 ECTS at the other university, no matter in which semester the courses are chosen or if they are a part of the compulsory or of the required optional courses.
- (2) The TUL's students, enrolled according to § 7, part 3, point 1 of the enrolment regulations (Immatrikulationsordnung) of the TUD in the International Management integrated study programme, can only complete modules of the master programme "Internationales Management" at the TUD, that are taught in English language.

Article 2 Recognition of Study Results Evaluations

- (1) The transcripts of records of the study results of students, participating in the International Management integrated study programme, are being mutually sent directly between the examination offices of the TUL and the TUD.
- (2) Study results evaluations of the students in the study program International Management are mutually recognised between the TUD and the TUL according to the conversion tables no. 1 and 2.

Article 3 Conditions for Graduation and Awarding a Foreign Academic Degree

- (1) The partner universities, TUD and TUL, will mutually recognise study and examination achievements including the master thesis completed in the course of the integrated study programme. Students can choose at which university they will write their master thesis.
- (2) After having fulfilled the respective graduation requirements of the home universities, the students will receive the respective degrees from the two institutions. The master diplomas/certificates or supplements (issued separately) include a remark to the effect that the master course of study was conducted within the agreement on two diplomas between the two universities.
